

2021-2022 Fall Grant AwardsTotal: $28,200

School	Applicant	Grant Purpose	Grant Award
Pearson Elementary	Cathleen Coleman	Three classroom libraries of books to practice decoding and fluency skills for emerging first grade readers	$863.91
Poulsbo Elementary	Cindy Gilman	Glockenspiels to support music instruction in a hands-on and COVID-safe way for Kindergarten - 3rd grade	$5,212
Gordon Elementary	Cathy McIsaac	Library of chapter books at various decoding levels to support foundational reading skills for kindergarten - 5th grade	$2,251 funded by Kingston Kiwanis in memory of Richard Osborn
Vinland Elementary	Vinland Leadership Team	Wobble chairs as flexible seating options for students who need sensory, attention and self-regulation supports	$3,600
Kingston Middle School	Joyce Bishop Charles Harris	Earbuds with microphones so students can utilize dictation and text reading accessibility features when writing	$436
Pearson Elementary	Jerrine Gabrio Jennifer Nelson	Materials and books for hands-on experiments during Family STEAM (Science, Technology, Engineering, Art, Math) events	$3,450 funded by Poulsbo Rotary
Kingston Middle/AGATE	Jonathan Schmitz	Bench seating for Socratic Seminars to support collaborative academic discussions	$524
North Kitsap High	Lisa Schuchart	Interactive display boards for collaborative work and study spaces in the library	$5,000
Choice Academy	Jodi Williams	Project Adventure materials and training to provide challenging and engaging experiential learning opportunities to diverse learners	$2,800
Gordon Elementary	Laurie Richens Michelle Scarr	STEM bins for creative exploration and play for budding first grade engineers	$596 funded by Kingson Rotary

Wolfe Elementary	Mayra Gaal	Set of programmable robots for the library so all students can learn coding, problem-solving and collaboration skills	$1,400 funded by Poulsbo Lions
Kingston High	Rachel Flores	Rubiks cubes so students can create 3 dimensional mosaics to learn problem-solving, algorithms and visual-spatial skills	$650
Poulsbo Elementary	Nicole Khvalabov	Books and materials to support language, vocabulary and social skills during speech/language intervention	$625
Gordon Elementary	Sarah Meyer	STEM bins to support creativity and problem-solving in 5th graders and enrichment during STEAM Night events	$607 funded by Kingston Rotary
Poulsbo Elementary Summit Program	Melissa Knodel Lee Pruett Jenny Sage-Degnin Nicole Khvalabov	Read-aloud books and activities to teach social-emotional concepts and self-regulation to support inclusion	$1,018
Kingston High	Tom Guenther	New sheet music for the concert band library to increase equitable representation of women and composers of color	$1,250 funded by Town & Country Markets
Pearson Elementary	Tamera Rabura	Ukeleles to learn kindergarten - fifth grade music concepts with hands-on engagement and in a COVID-safe manner	$2,607